

PD NetWORK

Company/Organization: Mint Museum

Position: NexGen Summer Program Lead

Company/Organization Overview:

An internationally-renowned institution, The Mint Museum is dedicated to collecting, conserving, exhibiting, inspiring, publishing and protecting important works of art and design from all over the global art community.

Internship Overview:

- The intern will attend tour training to understand Mint best practices and learn interpretive practices.
- They will help supervise training of volunteer teens guides from the Mint's NexGen program and the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Library's Volunteer corps.
- They will help collect feedback from tour participants and teen tour guides.
- The intern will help to facilitate in-gallery experiences with summer-camp instructors.

Timeframe and Hours:

Must be available 10-25 hours a week during the semester

Compensation:

A Focused Internship offers a stipend of $600.

Qualifications:

- Excellent communication and organizational skills.
- Comfortable leading and training high-school age students, including giving constructive feedback.
- Work well in team environment and be able to take initiative and make good decisions.
- Work with a variety of people in different situations.
- Good public-speaking skills.
- Some academic background in communications, art history, museum studies, education, or a similar field.
- Experience facilitating tours or gallery guide experience in cultural setting.

Link to Application: <https://mintmuseum.wufoo.com/forms/r8l3atm0rzn542/>

Questions? Please contact Steve Bondurant '98 at steve.bondurant@providenceday.org or call 704-887-6039.